HOW TO GET TO CRESTED BUTTE

Crested Butte is located in Southwestern Colorado, about 28 miles from the Gunnison/Crested Butte airport. Crested Butte is 196 miles from Colorado Springs via CO 115, US 50 and CO 135 and 230 miles southwest of Denver via US 285, US 50 and CO 135.

Flying to Gunnison/Crested Butte (GUC) has never been more convenient. This ski season American Airlines is offering daily non-stop flights to Gunnison airport from Dallas/Ft. Worth and Chicago's O'Hare Airport. Delta Air Lines will offer a Saturday only flight through Salt Lake City offering exceptionally convenient connections with the West Coast.

Additionally United and Continental Airlines have hundreds of flights arriving daily from all over the United States into Denver's Stapleton Airport, where skiers can conveniently connect with one of several daily flights to Gunnison/Crested Butte Airport offered by United Express or Continental Express. Convenient shuttle service meets each arriving flight and takes visitors to their lodging accommodations at the ski area. Getting to the slopes has never been easier, thanks to our airline partners!
